ON TREASURE TRAIN

Arrival of $19,534,200 Makes
Total of $39,098,400 From London in Month.

$55,000,000 STOCKS TOO

The British treasure train bringing a second shipment of gold from London reached New York yesterday, eighteen days after the arrival of the train that brought the first shipment of $19,534,200, which was a total of $39,098,400. The gold was a few thousand less than the first shipment, but the second shipment was a few thousand more. The gold was a few thousand less than the first shipment, but the second shipment was a few thousand more. Brought Over Sea on Warship.

It is understood that a British warship carried both of the shipments from England to Halifax. Admiral Sir David Beatty, victor in the naval action off Heligoland, was in command of the ship. The gold was carried over the Atlantic on the warship. The gold was carried over the Atlantic on the warship. The gold was carried over the Atlantic on the warship.

Procession of Twenty Vans.

The gold was in small boxes, eight inches by nine inches by three inches, each box containing 1,000 ounces. Copper bands and red sealing wax were used to seal each box. Twenty of the boxes were carried in motor vans. The vans were loaded with the boxes. The vans were loaded with the boxes. The vans were loaded with the boxes.

GOLD RELEASE URGED.

French Expert Wants His Country to Follow England's Lead.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN. PARIS, Aug. 29.—The Temps' financial expert says today: "The question of exchange is the most urgent of the problems facing us today. We have consulted competent specialists and they are of the opinion that the only way to solve the problem is to release the gold. The gold is the lifeblood of the nation. The gold is the lifeblood of the nation. The gold is the lifeblood of the nation."

ZAPATA TO TALK PEACE:
LANSING READY TO ACT

If Carranzistas Continue to Ignore Overtures Mexican Pacification Plans Will Go On and Embargo on Arms Will Be Enforced.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 28, via Colon, Aug. 29.—Gen. Zapata has answered the note of the Pan-American conference and while assenting to a peace conference he stipulated that the sovereignty of Mexico must not be violated.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Unofficial information received here to-night from Mexico city that Gen. Zapata has answered favorably the proposal of the United States and the six other American Governments regarding a peace conference has strengthened the belief that Secretary Lansing will make his next move in Mexico some time this week.

Because of the inaccessibility of the headquarters Gen. Zapata was one of the last of the Mexican factionalists to receive a copy of the Pan-American "get together" note. As the note indicated ten days as the time within which the replies would be expected after all the leaders had examined it, it is thought that some action will be taken this week whether Carranza has answered or not.

As the situation now stands Villa and practically all his leaders have been heard from and have registered their willingness to enter into a peace conference. Carranza's generals, on the other hand, have not yet answered the proposal that they will be bound by Carranza's decision.

Carranza Reply Not Expected.

Carranza himself is not expected to reply, if he replies at all, until after he establishes himself in Mexico city early this week. Mindful of the Mexican habit of "wait and see," Carranza's officials in Washington have not altogether abandoned the hope that at the last moment the First Chief will fall in with the peace plan. Carranza's officials in Washington have not altogether abandoned the hope that at the last moment the First Chief will fall in with the peace plan.

Plan to Corner Carranza.

Should Carranza not have come into line by that time, the Washington Government hopes that many of his leaders will have. In any event, the United States will be in a position to exert its right to import arms from the United States, the new Government will quickly recover the ground lost by Villa and drive Carranza into a corner. Every case will be taken by the United States and the other outside powers to keep in the background during the peace conference at some point as far as possible, to minimize the appearance of dictation.

ATTACKS WILSON'S STEP.

Will Make Mexican Situation Worse, Says Senor Retana.

That the note addressed to Mexico by the Pan-American conference called for "a peace conference" was a step in the wrong direction, rather than helping matters in the distracted country was pointed out yesterday by Senor Retana, a prominent Mexican politician. Senor Retana is a prominent Mexican politician. Senor Retana is a prominent Mexican politician.

EXPECT BORDER BATTLE.

U. S. Officers Believe Mexicans Will Ignore Agreement.

El Paso, Aug. 29.—United States officers here believe that battles on the American border may take place again between Mexican factions in defiance of the agreement of both factions to cease fighting. That Aguirre is to be attacked by 3,000 Villistas troops from Chihuahua is a statement of Gov. Maytorena of Sonora. The Governor said that he had been informed that these troops were now marching overland from Chihuahua and would reach a point near Aguirre within ten days. This is in line with the belief that as Villa is driving northward his men will enter Sonora for a final stand against the Constitutionalists. The invaders are reported to be under the leadership of Gen. Chao and Gen. Mendez.

DIES IN BELLEVUE AT 102.

Margaret Boyle a Victim of Fall Two Months Ago.

Margaret Boyle, the oldest patient in Bellevue Hospital, died there last night at the age of 102 years. Up to two months ago Mrs. Boyle had been active and enjoyed the best of health. On June 25, while walking in the hallway of her home at 238 East Thirtieth street, she stumbled and fractured her hip. She was taken at once to Bellevue, where she had been ever since. Because of her extreme age the case had been difficult one to treat, but under the care of Dr. Preston she had been nursed successfully until last night. She is survived by only one member of her immediate family, a grandson, Harry P. Boyle, with whom she lived prior to her accident.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—A reserve force of 30,000 trained engineers, to be immediately available in time of war, is being organized by the War Department. The regular army, is to be organized soon in the United States, according to an announcement here today.

Reds Inspect Old Fort.

This vast pile of masonry was built to guard the entrance to the lake, its portholes looking out upon the lake in all directions. Although the erection of the fort cost millions of dollars, it has never been occupied by a regular army and is today a mass of ruins. It was only a few years ago that the antiquated guns which filled the numerous ports had been dismantled and sold for scrap. The heavy oak doors, studded with copper rivets, which guard the entrance are rotting and the drawbridge over the lake is a ruin.

Colorado Governor Likens Him to a Mountebank.

DENVER, Aug. 29.—Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the Commission on Industrial Relations, was assailed to-night by Gov. Carlson. Said the Governor: "Mr. Walsh, with vicious and subtle cunning, is imputing the domination of Rockefeller to an overwhelming majority of Colorado's citizens. With the sophistry of the mountebank and the guile of the Federal official, he seeks to transfer to our people the prejudices of the nation against this man of wealth."

the Allies.

SHOCK FELT FOR MILES

ACTON, Mass., Aug. 29.—An explosion early today at the plant of the American Powder Company completely destroyed the glazing mill and will result in delaying for many weeks delivery of powder. No one was injured, so far as can be learned, although adjacent property suffered to some extent. The force of the explosion was felt as far away as Manchester, N. H., forty miles distant. Officials of the company say that the explosion was undoubtedly the work of dynamite.

SAYS SHE'S LUCY CURRIER

Who owns the dog?
Half a dozen excited persons, including Policeman Zambrano of the West 100th street station, tried to find out yesterday afternoon after the dog, a big muzzled animal, had playfully knocked down Louis Hirsch, 24½ years old, at Broadway and Ninety-fourth street. The lieutenant at the station thought he had found out when the dog, the woman who had the animal out for a walk and the other principals trooped around, seeking his assistance. But the reporters at work on the mystery last night gave up and sent these stray details over the telephone.
